TITLE Arbitration Law
IMPRINT London : New York : LLOYD's of London Press
DESCRIP. This two-volume looseleaf is divided into five key parts, the work looks at arbitration agreements, the different types of arbitrator and how they are appointed, arbitration proceedings, the Award itself, and judicial control. This book contains all recent case law arising from the Arbitration Act 1996. It provides a UK and international viewpoint on cases. It considers the impact of the Civil Procedure Rules on UK arbitration practice and procedure. It also analyses all important international conventions (UNCITRAL Model Law, New York Convention) and EU measures (Council Regulation 44/2001, Lugano and Rome Conventions). [Note: The copy in the Hastings Library is only current through the 2002 update.]

TITLE International Handbook on Commercial Arbitration
DESCRIP Recommended by Prof. Coombe, this title is not currently available at UC

Hastings. It contains more than 60 National Reports on arbitration law and practice written by leading arbitration experts from around the world. Each national reporter follows a standard format, which allows the reader to formulate comparisons between different approaches to arbitration. Relevant texts and national arbitration acts are annexed to each National Report for additional reference. The National Reports offer detailed information on the arbitral tribunal, the arbitration agreement, the arbitral procedure, the arbitral award, and means of recourse and enforcement of foreign awards. If you want to have a look at this book but can't get to Boalt, contact Prof. Coombe for other arrangements.

TITLE Commercial Arbitration in the Arab Middle East: Sharī'a, Syria, Lebanon and Egypt

DESCRIP The first part of this book, dealing with sharia, draws on the four major sources of sharia, with illustrations taken from the four main Sunni schools that have influenced its development. This part underpins all the remaining chapters which deal in turn with different national systems, building on the discussion by reference to local statutes, judicial precedents and commentaries. Detailed analysis of law and practice is supported by extensive footnoting, guidance on further reading, and insights into the prevailing business practices within each country. There is also an up-to-date discussion of practice and procedure for the execution and enforcement of domestic and foreign awards.
