

BLOCH, KATE

Books

CRIMINAL LAW: A CONTEMPORARY APPROACH: CASES, STATUTES, AND PROBLEMS (Aspen Publishers 2005.)

Articles

Subjunctive Lawyering and Other Clinical Extern Paradigms, 3 CLINICAL L. REV. 259 (1997).

A Rape Law Pedagogy, 7 YALE J.L. & FEMINISM 307 (1995).

Fifth Amendment Compelled Statements: Modeling the Contours of Their Protected Scope, 72 WASH. U. L.Q. 1603 (1994).

Police Officers Accused of Crime: Prosecutorial and Fifth Amendment Risks Posed by Police-Elicited "Use Immunized" Statements, 1992 U. ILL. L. REV. 625 (1992).

Articles in Books

The Challenging Student, in TEACHING THE LAW SCHOOL CURRICULUM 159 (Steven I. Friedland and Gerald F. Hess eds., Carolina Academic Press 2004).

Intellectual Treasure Hunts, in TEACHING THE LAW SCHOOL CURRICULUM 163 (Steven I. Friedland and Gerald F. Hess eds., Carolina Academic Press 2004).

Three Pillars of the Classroom Community: Demystification, Rapport, and Engagement, in TEACHING THE LAW SCHOOL CURRICULUM 159 (Steven I. Friedland and Gerald F. Hess eds., Carolina Academic Press 2004).

Student Note

The Role of Law in Suicide Prevention: Beyond Civil Commitment - A Bystander Duty to Report Suicide Threats, 39 STAN. L. REV. 929 (1987).